2. Earlier surveys ranked traffic and access second priority after town centre regeneration. Consultations have also indicated that the quality of place is as important to people as easy access and the free flow of traffic. The proposals here address both aspects.

3. Previous surveys have indicated a need for some additional housing to meet our future needs, and that as far as possible this should be within our existing built up area. 90% of respondents agreed that local housing needs should be identified and met. 98% agreed that new housing should be within the existing built up area of the town. It is possible that in the longer term, however, some needs may have to be met by extending the built up area, and this can be reviewed in 15 years time.

	Strongly Agree	Agree	Neutral / Not Sure	Disagree	Strongly Disagree	Rating Count
The location and type of further new housing should be reviewed in 15 years if the needs of the Parish are no longer able to be met within the current urban boundary.	27.1% (32)	51.7% (61)	12.7% (15)	3.4% (4)	5.1% (6)	118
The feasibility of relocating businesses from the Charlwood Road industrial area, and using the site for housing in the longer term should be investigated.	22.9% (27)	41.5% (49)	19.5% (23)	9.3% (11)	6.8% (8)	118

5	I think East Grinstead has a huge asset in its historic High Street which should be enhanced to make it a safer place for pedestrians, and to greater opportunities for "events" which would encourage people into the town. with the recent arrival of the Bluebell Railway I feel we have an unparalleled opportunity to promote the town as a destination which will have other towns of a similar size chewing their knuckles in envy. Close to where I had my second home in France was a viillage which had ten times taken the medal for the floweriest village in Europe - the local mayor had decided some years ago that with unemployment high he needed to create an attraction which would bring in visitors to the pretty granite villag. He got the village behind him and now every summer they have a profusion of flowers on every surface from window ledges to the top of the bus stop, as well as hanging baskets from every house and a small but beautiful park which on summer Sundays draws thousands of visitors. I'd love to see the High Street awash with summer flowers - perhaps with the sort of multi-tiered flowers stands I saw in Stafford some years ago - they were stunning. A lot more could be make of Sackville's front garden too - the hydrangeas were removed I understand because they were too close to the building, but they looked lovely and I am sure something could be planted where there is at present just lawn. I realise there are implications for upkeep but if a real effort was put in from Sackville up to the junction with London Road, the High Street could be a traffic stopper.	Jun 12, 2013 10:07 AM

45	This should be the main focus of the plan. By raising tourism, increasing foot traffic and helping independant businesses the town will begin to naturally progress for the better.	May 27, 2013 10:58 AM
46	Regarding the improvement of town centre streets and spaces, it depends entirely upon what is meant by "improvement". To maintain the unique character of East Grinstead, we must be careful to avoid wholesale redevelopment of the kind which has already blighted many other towns and which is characterised by standard dreary architecture and branches of national supermarket and other retail chains. 48	Pedestrionising of High St. is key.Independent retailers selling more unusual items should be targetted in order to attract tourists and encourage them to visit and to shop in EG. Railway Approach needs to be beautified (and that end of London Road if possible). Will new look Queens Walk support the vision for the town? development, it would seem building in and around East Grinstead has largely already been decided. The question of relocating businesses from Charlwood Rd (site ref:222(E.G/B/05)seems rather pointless, as the council have already said the site is in multiple ownership, and not all land owners are willing to move forward with the proposals for housing on the land. Where do you suggest the businesses relocate to? Also, how do you propose to build 40 dwellings on land at Brooklands Park,(Site ref 224(EG/E/05) without adding to the traffic congestion in the town centre? Dallaway Gardens is the only access road to Brooklands Park. There is already high density housing down there. Do you propose to have HGV'S trundling up and down when the proposed 40 dwellings are created?? You may consider the area to be derelict, but as it is called a PARK, maybe that is what it should remain. Most of the empty office blocks could provide the much needed small scale developments, and be turned into suitable accomodation, without destroying a park. 16 We must adopt a flexible policy to housing but within rules of high weald Jun 7, 2013 11:11 AM AoNB etc. The town neds to grow. 17 Martels have a lot of wharehousing, lots of jobs? Everyone keeps going on about tourism but is anyone actually promoting it? If I walked out of the main station without having been here before I wouldn't know what on earth was going on, where anything was and would probably give up by the time I got to the smal roundabout if I didn't accidentally go the other way. 67	Need more interest in town from MSDC and WSCC other that using town as a source of income. State of roads and street cleaning are POOR. Town council should consider setting up an 'area committee' with Lingfield, Forest Row councillors to address the common problems we all suffer from and bring a more consistant sense of well-being to the area. 69	Be more aware of environmental issues and public opinion. Some poor planning decisions have been allowed. Examples: Station car-park, buildings by the Dunnings Stream, use of building materials that are inappropriate to the Weald (e.g. flint). Loss of the Caffyns Art Deco building a very poor decision.
